wines by Coravin

(Coravin is a cutting-edge wine system that means we can pour you glasses of the most beautiful wine without having to worry about the whole bottle.)

		Region	Gls	Btl
2016	Hinton Bay Chardonnay	Tamar Valley, Tas	22	98
Exclusive to Mudbar. Fruit was hand harvested, chilled, whole bunch pressed direct to a mix of French oak barriques, hogsheads, and puncheons with 25% matured in new oak. Wild fermentation on lees for 10 months has created a complex, rich and powerful wine which reflects its cool climate and unique terroir. – Winemaker's notes
2018	Rockford Vine Vale Riesling	Eden Valley, SA	20	86
Rockford Wine can only be described as an Icon, the wines feature selections of Barossa Valleys oldest and best vineyards. Exquisite chalky tannin to finish; a well-balanced acidity allows for a soft lightness and airy feel.
2018	Torbreck "The Struie" Shiraz	Barossa, SA	33	160
This Torbreck Shiraz is a skilful blend of fruit from a single vineyard Eden Valley Shiraz and old vine Shiraz from the Barossa Valley's Western Ranges. "The wine is full-bodied and ample, big and bold, with abundant soft tannins and lovely balance. A big but elegant wine whose texture is finely grained, not coarse. Such generosity, allied to such elegance."-Huon Hooke (leading independent wine writer)
2012	Yalumba "The Octavius" Old Vine Shiraz (v)	Barossa Valley, SA	39	196
Hidden throughout the Barossa, a patchwork of tiny, old and much-loved vineyards shyly bear bunches of exquisite Shiraz. The best of this fruit, from vines that are among the oldest in the world, is carefully selected with one wine in mind: Yalumba's "The Octavius Old Vine Shiraz", a wine that has established a reputation as one of Australia's iconic Shiraz.
2018	Pooley "Butchers Hill" Pinot Noir	Richmond, Tas	26.5	100
The 2018 vintage was slightly warmer than the long-term average leading to rich and complex fruit coming from the Butcher's Hill Vines The Butchers Hill vines were planted in 2003 and every vintage has exceeded expectations! Deep burgundy red with a faint purple rim, the nose offering layers of bramble, rhubarb, and raspberry over cracked pepper, mushroom and smoky cedar spice.

Burgundies

At Mudbar we specialise in our own favourite grape variety: Pinot Noir. It is our aim to have an exciting array of this varietal for our customers' enjoyment.

We have selected some outstanding wines from both Tasmania and Burgundy (France).

Our exclusive range of Burgundies has been hand-selected by celebrated wine judge (Mr David Johnson) from a scattering of villages throughout Burgundy including Chablis.

Our Burgundies are listed by sub-region except where the wine is a blend from several sub-regions and/or villages.

cocktails – specialty

Tasmanian 4 gin Martini 26

A luscious libation. An extra-dry martini mixing four beautifully matched Tasmanian gins: Hartshorn Sheep's Whey, Hobart No. 4, McHenry Dry and Forty Spotted. Served straight up with a twist of lemon.

Rosemary's garden 21

Our signature cocktail. Gin, Parfait Amour, Absinthe, lemon juice, orange bitters and rosemary.

Elle's crumble 20

Tastes like a rhubarb and apple crumble. Chambord, vodka, pineapple, cinnamon, lime and a bit of fire!

Sloe morning 19

Better than breakfast! Tasmanian sloe gin, lemon juice and marmalade.

Mudbar sours

All-time favourite of ours here at Mudbar with hundreds of variations. Here are some of our picks. Be sure to ask one of our bar staff if you would like something a little different, we'll be sure to make one to your taste.

Sloe gin Sour: Something a bit sweeter. Using Tasmanian sloe gin as our base. 20

Coconut Sour: A creamy coconut delight. Made using coconut rum, coconut cream and citrus. 20

Whiskey Sour: Amplify your whiskey drinking experience with our whiskey sour. We offer all of our whiskeys as substitute with our first pick being Woodford Reserve Bourbon. 20

Amaretto Sour: A drink that's a little bit of everything; sweet, sour, frothy and nutty! Put together using Disaronno amaretto as the base ingredient to this delicious almond-y cocktail. 20

Apple cider Mimosa 13

Designed for lunch, trust us. Another of our own twists on a classic, created using Lost Pippin Sparkling cider, Tasmanian Sparkling wine and rimmed with cinnamon sugar.

Peach Bellini 16

A (very very) good way to start the day and finish the day! Made with Peach Schnapps, peach purée, mango smash, prosecco topped with soda.

cocktails – classic

Martini

21

The undisputed king; very simple yet so complex. Everybody likes their martini made slightly differently – here's a handy guide:

Start with your choice of gin or vodka (prices vary)

Then your preferred amount of vermouth: naked, extra dry, dry, classic or wet

Next, your garnish: olives or a citrus twist.

There are also a few classic variations such as:

Dirty: stirred down with olive brine

Perfect: made with dry and sweet vermouth

Vesper: made with vodka, gin and Lillet (not for the faint-hearted)

Espresso: made using Bruno Rossi espresso, Tasmanian vodka, Crème de Cacao, Mr Black coffee liqueur and Kahlua (for something a bit creamier we'll replace the vodka with Baileys!)

There are a hundred other ways to order a martini but this is where to start.

Despite what James Bond may have you believe; your martini is best stirred.

Old fashioned

23

An old favourite. Woodford Reserve Bourbon, sugar and aromatic bitters. Flamed orange zest.

Cosmopolitan

22

Never a cliché. Citrus vodka, Cointreau, lime juice and cranberry finished with a flaming extraction of orange oil.

Mudbar negroni

23

Sometimes an old recipe is a gold recipe. We make ours using Tasmanian dry gin, slowly stirred down with some Dolin Rogue Vermouth and Campari; finished with that classic flamed orange twist

Margarita

19

When life gives you limes, have a margarita! Made using tequila, lime juice, Cointreau and agave nectar, rimmed with salt.

Tassie 45

19

A French classic with a Tasmanian twist! Made using an all Tasmanian cast of Clover Hill NV Cuvée and Forty Spotted Gin topped with a fresh lemon twist.
